3. Heverlée, Belgium: Archivum Provinciae Belgiae Septemtionalis (APBS).

The APBS is one of the important sources for the History of the Catholic Church in Gangpur. The archives contain letters of the missionaries and letters and reports of the superiors of the Bengal mission of the Belgian province of the Society of Jesus. The archives also possess the copies of letters that the missionaries wrote to the superiors and missionaries in Calcutta and Ranchi. Some of the important letters, which the missionaries wrote to their family members, are also conserved in the archives.

4. Annecy, France: General Archives of the Missionaries of St. Francis de Sales (AMSFS).

In the absence of a provincial archive and diocesan archive, the General Archives of the Missionaries of St. Francis de Sales, Annecy is the only source for the History of the Catholic Church in Orissa. The archives contain letters addressed to the superior general. Besides a narration of their journeys, the missionaries' letters of 'self-evaluation' of their work as missionaries, and life as religious are also conserved. The archives conserve some of the letters and reports of the bishops and superiors of the mission.

6. Rome: General Archives of the Congregation of the Mission (ACGR)

The documents sought in the archives are precise and limited. The documents concerning the transfer of the mission are found in the following categories.

- Province de Madrid: Superieur de la Mission Cuttack Indes (1922 – 1926/1927)
- Procès Verbaux des Conseils - Tome IX et X (1917 - 1923)

7. Diocesan Archives, Bishop's House, Rourkela, Orissa

VERMEIRE Medard, Gangpur Mission History I & II (1904-1948), Unpublished Manuscripts

These two volumes are a collection of documents from the early evangelisation of Gangpur up to the arrival of the SVD Missionaries (Society of the Divine Word) in 1948. The collection consists of diaries of the first parishes and of the individual Missionaries and the official letters relating to the establishment of the mission stations. Though uncritical and more often the translation from French into English is defective, the collection is one of the most important sources for a History of the Gangpur Mission.
